

The Dimmer View

BY MAX GOODWIN

It is interesting to note that the court situation in Lemon Grove and the east county will get a legislative scrutiny here October 9 and 10.

State Senator Fred Kraft and Assemblyman George Crawford have asked Senator Edward Reagan to bring the State Joint Legislative Judiciary Committee here for investigation and study. Reagan heads the committee. Crawford is a member.

Both Kraft and Crawford said they have received complaints concerning the shuffling of the Homeland Judicial District. It was a fast shuffle indeed which got the local district consolidated with the San Diego Municipal Court District. Lemon Grove's court was dissolved in the process. The dissolution elevated, automatically, Justice of the Peace Luther Hussey to a full fledged municipal court judge with the salary increment from $5,100 to $16,500 a year.

This was done by the county supervisors in August of last year. Supervisor Bird was absent, being out of town at the time. This was also done without warning or notice to local residents. The meeting was not advertised!

Two persons appeared at the supervisor's meeting and requested the consolidation. One was John Dail, a tenant of Hussey's. The other was John Leppert, representing the San Diego Taxpayer's association. No one appeared at the hearing.

Couple Sells Restaurant

Lemon Grove's first restaurant, the Avalon Cafe, 3307 Imperial avenue, has been sold, it was announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. William MacQueen.

The MacQueens have operated the restaurant for 13 years and have expanded and modernized it several times during that period.

New owners are a San Diego couple, Mr. and Mrs. Leon La Thimesche of 4448 Winona street. The MacQueens said they are going to go north, spend considerable time traveling, and, of course, put aside enough time for MacQueen to catch up on his fishing.

The new couple takes over September 8.

WATER RIGHTS? SEWER RIGHTS?

SV New Sewer Plant May Be Abandoned

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—The new sewage treatment plant of the Spring Valley Sanitation District will have to be abandoned if the County Water Authority persists in its demands for a right-of-way across the plant site, supervisors were told Tuesday.

Jean L. Vincenz urged the board to resist CWA pressure for the right-of-way, and supervisors directed Vincenz, who is director of public works and engineering for the sanitation district, to confer with Water Authority officials in the hope of saving removal of the plant.

The CWA is seeking a right-of-way across the plant site for the proposed second San Diego aqueduct. Vincenz said this would take almost two and a half acres of the 15 and a half acres in the site, which would make impossible any expansion of the plant for future growth in the Spring Valley area.

"The plant has a capacity to serve 15,000 people," Vincenz said, "with provisions for enlarging it by adding units as required. In order to provide for expansion facilities, more property was purchased than would be absolutely necessary at this state of development."

He said that anything less than the whole 15 and a half acres would prove to be inadequate. "The Authority is going to be stiff-necked about this," Vincenz told supervisors. "They've procrastinated so long that they're in trouble with Bollenbacher and Kelton, subdividers in the area. Their engineer, who came to see me six weeks ago about this right-of-way, seemed surprised we weren't ready to give him what he wanted."

Supervisors are directors of the sanitation district. They will have the final say on whether or not to fight the requests of the water authority.

The sewage treatment plant site cost the district $29,000. Vincenz said the county's road department is seeking part of the

Tom Sawyer Play Slated This Week

The next play of the Lemon Grove Recreation Department, "Tom Sawyer's Treasure Hunt," was written to meet the clamor for a good Tom Sawyer play.

Many available dramatizations lacked fidelity to the book, or, like many children's plays, lacked understanding either of children or of theatre technique. Experience has shown that the writing of a play for children demands not less but more skill in theatrical matters, and better understanding of the audience than writing for the adult stage.

The play will be presented at the Lemon Grove Junior high auditorium Thursday and Friday of this week at 8 p.m. There will be a small fry matinee on Thursday, August 28 at 1:30 p.m. Evening admission is 25 cents for children and 50 cents for adults. Matinee prices are 10 cents for children and 25 cents for adults.

Democratic Nominee Visits Valley Residents

Jim Bear, Democratic nominee in the 80th Assembly district, discussed problems and presented his views on national affairs during a visit August 22 at the E-Z-Duz-It Rancho on Lyons Valley road.

'Sameness' Trait Of LG Family

Lemon Grove has what must be the original "togetherness" family. For on the same day, August 20, the wives of brothers Gustavo and Lorenzo Alvarez who live in the same house (Gustavo lives in the back) 3665 and 3667 Olive street, gave birth to babies of the same sex, girls, in the same ward of the same hospital.

To make matters even more confusing, when a Paradise Valley hospital nurse told Gustavo he was a father he thought she meant his brother, Lorenzo, because Lorenzo had taken his wife, Carol, to the hospital several hours earlier but Gustavo's wife, Nancy, decided to beat her sister-in-law to the punch. She did too, by 12 hours.

Brother Gustavo's daughter, Priscilla Sharon, weighed in at six pounds, 12½ ounces, and brother Lorenzo's baby, Joan, tipped the scales at seven pounds, seven ounces.

Another new Lemon Grove citizen is a six-pound son born August 15 to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Luscher of 1633 Madera street.

Services Held For Ira Grave

Ira Louis Grave, 84, 8801 Olive Drive, Spring Valley, died Tuesday morning at Grossmont hospital following a lingering illness. He was a native of Massachusetts although he lived in Spring Valley for the past 19 years. He was office manager of a Massachusetts clothing concern for 30 years.

He was a member of the La Mesa Central Congregational church.

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Supervisors Tuesday approved boundaries for the proposed incorporation of Lemon Grove and set the population within the area at 17,900.

An election will be held after a 21-day period for nominations for councilmen and a 25-day period for the circulation of sample ballots and polling places. With the resolution approving the boundaries due to be voted on at the next meeting of supervisors, September 2, the earliest the election could be held would be Oct. 18, a Saturday. Elections have to be on Tuesdays.

As the office of the Registrar of Voters is snowed under with work from the middle of October until after the general election, it was predicted Tuesday that no vote on Lemon Grove incorporation was likely before Nov. 25. Proponents of incorporation were hopeful they could have the vote before the general election on Nov. 4.

Tuesday's public hearing before supervisors was marked by

Nomination Papers To Be Available Here

Nomination forms for candidates for the city's first council will be available at the office of the LEMON GROVE REVIEW as soon as the proper form is approved by county counsel and the registrar of voters.

The nominating papers must be circulated during a 21-day period starting 75 days before the election and must be completed and turned in 54 days before the election.

Since the election date is yet to be set by the supervisors legal circulating dates cannot be determined.

The REVIEW urges any resident of the proposed city who is interested and sincere to run for the first council. It should be pointed out, however, the job carries no pay.

Irrigation District Directors Approve Inclusion Petitions

The Helix Irrigation District board of directors held a hearing of petitions Tuesday for the inclusion of lands within the district boundaries.

Petitions for inclusion were submitted by G. G. Bruno and the Cajon Investment Company for parcels in the Lakeview area, J. J. Pearson for a La Mesa parcel, R. L. Benson for a parcel in East El Cajon Valley and the Triumph-Fro Corporation and the Stellardyne Laboratories for parcels south of Gillespie Field. The board adopted an order of inclusion for all of these lands except the parcel owned by the Cajon Investment Company. The hearing on that parcel was postponed until next Tuesday's meeting.

A petition for the exclusion of a parcel southwest of Lemon Grove which was recently annexed to the city of San Diego was also heard and an order of exclusion was adopted. This parcel is owned by Mrs. Maude Hartley of 3827 30th street.

All of the parcels included were formerly in the Rio San Diego Municipal Water District.

Unusual Item For Sale In Local Saloon . . . The Saloon!

There's something different for sale in Lemon Grove's Orange Lantern Cafe, 3015 Imperial avenue, that has never been offered there before. Item of sale is the Orange Lantern Cafe.

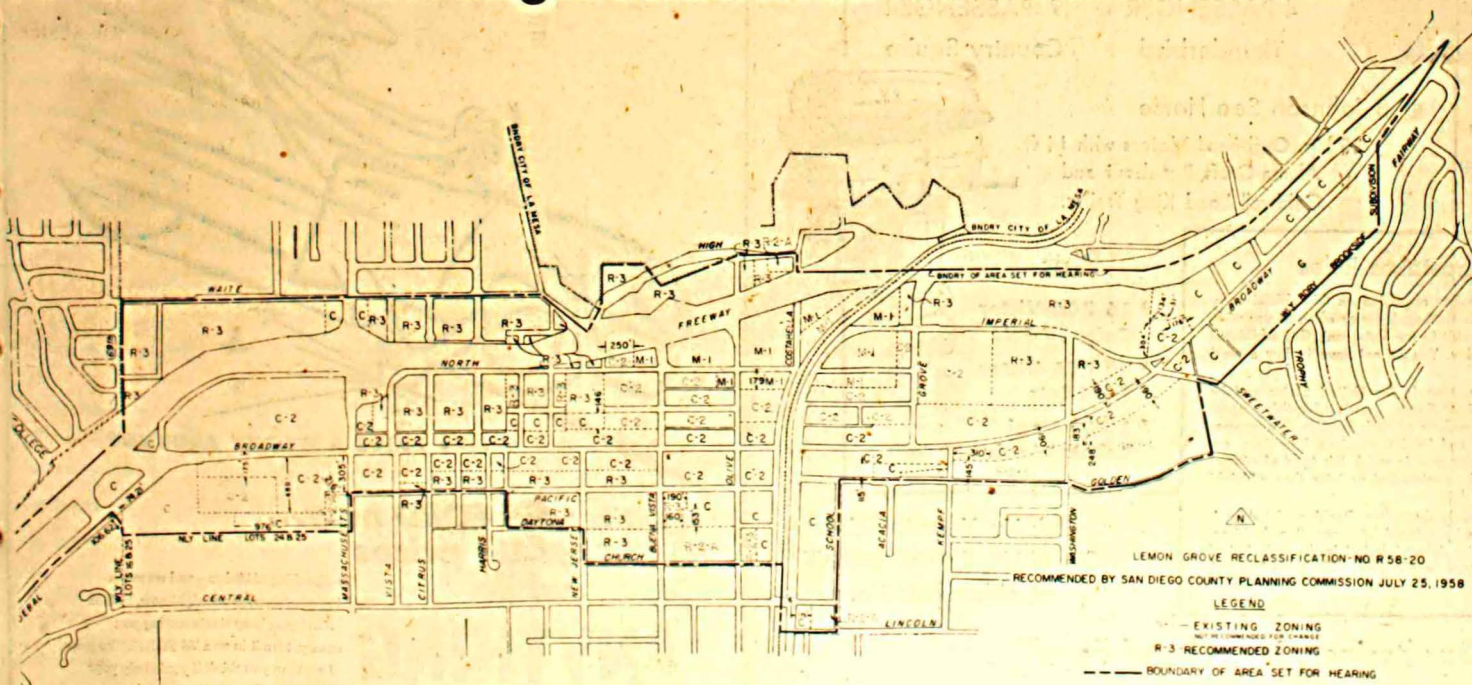

The cafe, together with a service station at 3037 Imperial, a residence and store building at 3031 Imperial, and a concrete block building in the rear of the service station will go under the auctioneer's hammer September 6 in a sale to be conducted in the Orange Lantern cafe. This is the first step in the widening of Imperial avenue by the County road department.

The building will be sold for cash only and must be removed within 30 days after purchase.

Joe Mack, county road commissioner said the improvement would be 4,000 feet in length and would widen Imperial to 100 feet between Cypress and North avenues. Eighteen-foot center islands will be installed the entire length of the improvement.

No date has been set for starting the work although it is hoped the job can be completed by July, 1959. The improvement has been complicated by a railway easement running the length of the improvement. There are still some details to be worked out with the railroad, Mack said.

Lemon Grove Zoning Reclassification Plan Nears Decision

County board of supervisors are expected to help resolve Lemon Grove's zoning problems during the next few months. The plan (shown above), developed by Dr. Willis Miller and his County Planning Department, has aroused considerable reaction among several property owners. Miller says the plan provides for orderly development of the fast-growing community. Some property owners, most of whom appeared at hearings on the plan, say maximum property usage is not guaranteed and demand a more "reasonable" zoning. Between these two extremes in the area the supervisors will work as they make the decision.

Zoning categories used in Lemon Grove Rezone Plan are given here as a guide:

R-2-A Zone
One and two family residence zone, allowing one single-family or one two-family dwelling, or the option of two single-family dwellings if the lot has a depth of at least 125 feet. Minimum lot or building site area is 6,000 sq. ft. Schools and churches are permitted upon issuance of a special use permit.

R-3 Zone
Multiple residence zone, allowing multiple family dwellings and such other uses as boarding houses, clubs, lodges, schools and churches. Minimum lot or building site area is 6,000 square feet.

C Zone
Retail business zone requiring most operations to be conducted entirely within enclosed buildings and 50 per cent of the building site to be used for off-street parking and or loading. No minimum building site required.

C-2 Zone
Retail and wholesale business zone, allowing all types of businesses permitting light manufacturing using in excess of ten horsepower. No minimum building site required.

M-1 Zone
Industrial zone, allowing all types of businesses and generally all industrial uses except those objectionable because of noise, odor, dust or vibration. No minimum building site required.

NOTE: The minimum area requirement of 6,000 square feet does not apply to any smaller lot or building site, the owner of which did not own any abutting property when the area regulations first were applied. Ordinarily this will be July, 1942, although there are a few areas to which area requirements will be applied for the first time when the rezoning becomes effective.

Mites Infesting Avocado Trees, Expert Discloses

Avocado brown mite infestations have built up in most avocado growing districts of San Diego county within the last few weeks, reports University of California Farm Advisor Don Gustafson.

Injury to avocado leaves can be seen along the midrib and smaller veins. A brownish discoloration will begin along the midrib, but as the mites increase the discoloration spreads over the entire leaf surface. Also, presence of mites will be characterized by many whitish eggs and cast skins on the upper leaf surface. The green leaf color returns if the mites are controlled. If the injury is severe, foliage may drop.

Natural enemies, parasites, usually keep the brown mite under control. Sometimes when a heavy infestation occurs, spot spraying is done. Before spraying however, contact your district agricultural commissioner, inspector or the Farm Advisor's office. Do not spray unless absolutely necessary.

Insecticide groups upset the natural balance between pests and parasites. If this occurs, the pest situation could become worse. The grower would be wise to take whatever damage

E. G. 'Pat' Brown Cites Record In Local Talk

Speaking before members of the Lemon Grove and La Mesa Democratic Clubs Sunday afternoon in Lemon Grove, Edmund G. "Pat" Brown's county campaign co-chairman said that the Democratic gubernatorial candidate's record of administration as attorney general "will withstand any attack his opponent may make."

Burton I. Jones, who with Robert F. Driver, is co-chairman of Brown's campaign, spoke at a meeting at the home of Bert Betts, Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, 8145 Palm Ave.

"The defensive battle lines are already being drawn by Mr. Brown's opponent and we are delighted that he has chosen to discuss Brown's administration of the attorney general's office. Because we will stand on it. We have working for his election hundreds of well informed law enforcement officers, district attorneys and attorneys well qualified by actual experience with the attorney general's office to know Brown's record."

He stated that Brown took over as attorney general "when that office had fallen into disrepute. He restored its prestige and today is widely regarded as one of the nation's best law enforcement officers."

"His approach to the attorney general's office has not been limited and punitive," Jones said, "but rehabilitative and enlightened, especially in the field of juvenile delinquency."

"His horizons never have been restricted. He fought early for reforms in the enforcement of the liquor law and urged much the same reorganization of liquor administration as we have today. Representing the state in litigation over oil and water, he has a well-schooled insight into the problems posed by these major resources," Brown's spokesman said.

La Presa Zoning Discussed

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A zoning study of the La Presa area was authorized by the County Planning Commission Friday. Supervisors ordered that a survey be made to determine engineering study costs.

Both actions were taken as a result of requests from Bollenbacher and Kelton, Inc., large subdividers of land throughout southern California.

Supervisors also discussed how to permit financing of streets plans for La Presa district streets. Supervisor David W. Bird said "they couldn't object to the La Presa County Water District taking over the development of sewers, but we have to watch out that the county isn't stuck with a large bill for street engineering plans that aren't used."

Supervisors said they wanted to be sure street bonds would be voted if the county underwrote street engineering studies. The road department is to report on the cost.

No decision was reached on the water district's proposal to form an improvement district and sell bonds to connect the area to Spring Valley Sanitation District.

The planning commissioners also directed that a public hearing be held on adding the La Presa area to the Lemon Grove zoning district.

Demo Senate Nominee To Stump Area

Hugo Fisher, Democratic nominee for state senate will stump Lemon Grove-Spring Valley and surrounding areas Friday.

Accompanying Fisher will be Mrs. Mary Lou Turner of Lemon Grove. Mrs. Edward Hilmer of Spring Valley and Fisher's campaign co-ordinator, Lloyd Winburn.

In Spring Valley the party will tour the business district from shortly after noon until 2:30. In Lemon Grove the party will meet at Michael's restaurant. The party will take part in a rally and fish fry for Henry "Hank" Lopez, Democratic nominee for secretary of state in El Cajon at 5:30.

Fisher said he plans to stump as much of the county as possible to get the ideas of the people on what their new state senator should do.

Fisher, a 38-year-old attorney, is seeking to unseat State Senator Fred Kraft.

WATERING
September is usually a dry month when plenty of watering and irrigation is necessary.

CAMELIAS:
I always irrigate camellias and, since I have my beds covered with a thick poultice of humus which holds the moisture, they don't seem to need irrigation more often than once a week. You can always gauge their need of moisture by examining the soil, making sure that it is never permitted to go dry.

FRUIT TREES
Stone fruit trees should be watered by long, deep, slow irrigation every four weeks. Some people have a tendency to stop irrigation after the fruit is picked but this is a mistake. Irrigation should continue until the rains come.

VEGETABLES
Vegetables require slow, deep irrigation about once a week.

ROSES
I favor overhead watering, especially since we have so much smog, because this washes the roses. However, it should be done in the morning so that blooms and foliage have time to dry off before the end of the day.

Van Deerlin Rips Wilson In Labor Issue

Lionel Van Deerlin, Democratic nominee for Congress attacked his opponent Wednesday night for voting against labor reform.

Addressing San Diego's County Labor Council (AFL-CIO), Van Deerlin accused Rep. Robert C. Wilson of working against responsible labor leaders and against both Republican senators from California.

"Wilson may try to explain this thing away from now until November," Van Deerlin said. "But he will find it difficult to convince thousands of San Diegans, both in and out of the labor movement, that his vote against the Kennedy-Ives bill was in the public interest."

The Democratic nominee, who carries labor's endorsement in the 30th District congressional race, said he agrees with many critics that the Kennedy-Ives bill was not perfect.

"But it was the best bill that could come out of the present session, and Wilson knew it," Van Deerlin added. "This bill had been introduced by one Republican and one Democratic senator, and the upper house had passed it, 88-1—with both William Knowland and Tom Kuchel voting aye."

In the House of Representatives, the Kennedy-Ives bill was beaten by six votes, with Congressman Wilson joining a Republican majority in opposition.

Van Deerlin outlined the following provisions which would have become law if the bill had passed:

Compulsory union elections at stated intervals.
The secret ballot in all elections.
Full public disclosure of union finances.

A ban against ex-convicts holding union office.
"These reforms would have gone a long way toward curbing the sickening abuses of union authority that have come to light in recent months," Van Deerlin told his all-labor audience. "If enacted, moreover, they would not have closed the door to consideration of further reforms by the next Congress."

OLD CAMERAS NEVER DIE?
I thought it was a gag at first. This guy comes into my shop with an old, beat-up camera... something like Grandfather used. "Can you fix this?"

"Let me take a look at it," I answered. It had been a good camera in its day but its day had passed with the Roaring Twenties.

"I can fix it for you but why don't you keep it for a souvenir and get another camera? You can get a new camera that's easier to use and takes better pictures than your old one. And it will cost less than fixing your antique," I told him.

I showed him one of my favorites, the Kodak Duaflex. It was love at first sight. The Duaflex sold itself when he looked through the "what-you-see-you-get" viewfinder. In fifteen minutes the guy was on his way out with his new camera and six rolls of film.

"Hey, wait a minute. You forgot your old camera," I called after him.

He stopped. "Oh that. You can keep it!"

Anyone want to buy a good old camera? Real cheap?

LG City Boundaries Okayed

Similar views were expressed by Mrs. Marie Howell and Mrs. Marie Robinson. Joseph H. Kent said, "If I have to go in La Mesa, I'll sell out and move back to San Diego."

None gave any reasons for objecting to being in La Mesa.

Earl Smart, speaking as attorney for Herziger, Harris, Inc., housing developers, asked that his clients' land in the southwest corner of the proposed city be excluded.

Gilbert Dreyfuss, attorney for Hale Co., also land developers, made the same request for adjoining land. He said it should be excluded because it could be served by San Diego's sewage disposal facilities by gravity flow, while a pumping plant would be needed to use the Lemon Grove system.

Both requests were denied. Supervisors only excluded Vista La Mesa on the northwest and an area on the northeast at the La Mesa city boundaries, a Brookside area, and the ranch owned by Tom Mukal. The latter's wife asked the exclusion on the basis part of the ranch would be in the city and part out.

Robert Henrich, of the assessor's office, said the total area had assessed valuation of $17,440,000 and an area of about 3,500 acres. He put the assessed valuation of the excluded area at close to $500,000.

In addition to setting the boundaries for Lemon Grove's proposed city, supervisors Tuesday also approved final rezoning of the area's business section. The

Schrade Urges Passage Of State Harbor Plan

Schrade pointed out that the measure "will boost California's ocean commerce in San Diego, as well as in the Los Angeles, Long Beach and San Francisco areas, and provide urgently needed small craft facilities long sought by San Diego."

CRUSADER HABIT — Six-year-old Donna Richardson hands Noble Herricks literature concerning the Skyline Wesleyan Methodist church Kids Crusade being held this week. The Crusade, which includes singing, bible sketches and a parade on Saturday, is the climax of the church Bible School, August 25-30. Herricks was scheduled to be a crusader dressed in full armor but a slip up in shipping occurred somewhere down the line and the suit of armor didn't arrive in time so he wheeled out an old fashioned buggy and horse and appeared in Western attire instead. It's reported the kids didn't mind a bit.

Tourist Dollars Show No Drop

At a time when most other tourist areas suffered a drop in business, Southern California held its own during the peak summer travel month of July, the All-Year Club reported this week.

A total of 590,266 tourists were attracted here from other states and foreign countries. This was the same as July a year ago, according to F. M. Banks, president of the community tourist advertising organization.

While here they spent $60,561,000 mostly through retail trade channels which spread the dollars rapidly throughout the region.

"These are new dollars, brought here from other states," Banks said. "They are added to our money in local circulation, building sales and employment, in general giving our local economy a stimulus which, of course, is always welcomed."

Tourists last year spent nearly $609,000,000 in the southland. They have spent approximately one-half billion dollars or more every year since the end of World War II.

Neighbors Demand Close Of Little League Field

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Supervisors Tuesday put off a decision on whether or not the Skyline Wesleyan Methodist church, Lemon Grove, should have a special use permit for a Little League field, complete with bleachers and concessions.

Harlan "Nick" Nickerson, president of the Little League, said juvenile delinquency had been reduced since the field opened this spring.

Mrs. Ralph Richards, owner of adjacent property, disagreed, saying "her yard equipment has been stolen" since the league started. She also said the league was being supported by Lomita Village people "because it isn't in Lomita Village."

Norton B. Randall, representing the subdividing firm of Bollenbacher and Kelton, also protested the permit for the league. He said the field was for San Diego boys and that youngsters in his company's subdivision, nearby, couldn't play on the teams.

Nickerson said this would be changed by next year.

Edward E. Marsh, attorney, spoke on behalf of the church. He said a permit had been given and money spent for improvement. It was not fair to change after this expenditure, he said.

Mrs. Richards said the project had been started without asking

Reverend Cooke To Rest At Idylwild

The Lemon Grove Methodist church said hello and goodbye to its pastor, the reverend Don Cooke, this week. Rev. Cooke emerged from his sickbed of four weeks to preach a sermon. He leaves this week for a period of rest and recuperation at Idylwild. He will return to the pulpit September 7.

New X-Ray Unit To Be Installed At Health Dept.

The San Diego County Tuberculosis and Health association is purchasing a new x-ray unit for the San Diego Department of Public Health, according to a release from the association.

The new equipment, which will cost approximately $14,000, will be equipped with an Odelca camera, making it possible to take x-rays by means of an optic-mirror reflection.

Dr. Vernon J. Wyborne, president of the association, said the new unit is a gift from those who have purchased Christmas seals, and will enable the Health Department to increase its tuberculosis case finding. The unit, Dr. Wyborne said, should be in the Health Department's new building within 30 days.

Dr. J. B. Askew said the Department's present unit will be moved to the San Diego City jail where chest x-rays may be made of inmates on a daily basis. This will prevent tuberculosis from spreading to other communities after an inmate is released, Dr. Askew pointed out.

It is expected that when the new machine is installed in the Health Department, over 50,000 x-rays a year can be made at the clinic.

The 60,000-ton vessel is expected to visit Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, Yokosuka and Iwakuni, Japan; Hong Kong, B.C.C.; and Subic Bay, Philippines, before returning to her home port of Alameda, California early next year.

The Dimmer VIEW

peared to defend the court because none knew the consolidation was coming up for hearing!

The consolidation was particularly odd since the area was in the district of absent board member Bird. Historically, supervisors refrain from action affecting another supervisors' districts unless he is present, or the action has his prior approbation.

This is the atmosphere in which the Homeland District was shuffled out of existence!

The consolidation was tempered later when the supervisors rescinded their decision and the Homeland District was realigned with the El Cajon District. This made possible a better court service condition in the east county but it did not return to Lemon Grove the court the citizens had fought to retain several years before.

Supervisors were obviously aware of the disservice they had occasioned court users when they closed the Lemon Grove court. This was proven by the act of re-aligning the districts, which they did over the protestation of Judge Hussey. The realignment made possible, population-wise, for the new district to be assigned an additional judge to the El Cajon Judicial District. This is yet to be done but there is opinion that the governor will announce an appointee within the next 90 days.

As a sop to Hussey's petulance supervisors agreed to leave three precincts of the San Diego district, pointing as an accusing finger, to Hussey's house in Lemon Grove. This created an idiotic corridor by which Judge Hussey would be, legally at least within the boundaries of the San Diego municipal district while surrounded by the El Cajon Judicial District.

This is some of the tomfoolery the judicial committee will consider here in October. While I am positive none of those having part in the shuffle of districts will be penalized, I am equally certain new laws will come from the study by which it will be virtually impossible for such shuffling to be done in the future.

It will be made crystal clear to the committee, I am led to believe, that it doesn't make good sense to discommode a court district with 140,000 population for what appears to be the personal advantage of a small clique.

There is a woman, a Mrs. Ruth R. Pettis of Deerfield, Illinois who has come up with a surprising, simple program that could well be the national platform. Says she in a communication to the AMERICAN PRESS "a journal of the profession of newspapering, 'I believe that Washington, D.C. should be given to its three bordering states and that a new capitol should be established in the middle west where the real pulse of the nation is found.

Second, we should reduce foreign aid.

Third, we should re-vamp farm subsidies and reduce guaranteed prices."

For a female, this writer seems to make good sense.

Also from the trade journals comes a sad story of an editor who counted on another to cover him on a photographic assignment. The other guy cacked out and no pictures were available. He quoted a piece by John Godfrey Saxe which covered the moral aspects of his case... which also supplies us with a sense of direction in other and similar occasions:

"In battle or business, whatever the game,
In law or in love, it is ever the same;
In struggle for power, or the scramble for pelf,
Let this be your motto,
Rely on yourself!"

A newspaper in New York ran the following item... and we see no reason to change it. It read:

"People DON'T go riding just to read billboards.
"People DON'T have windshields so there will be a place to tuck advertising matter."

"People DON'T build front porches to have a place where circulars, shopping sheets, etc., can be thrown.

"But when people DO lay 10 cents on the line for a copy of this newspaper you can be sure they are buying it to READ."

☆ Overheard in the editorial office: "We read a lot of insane editorials and write some."

☆ Of all the nations of the world, the ten-year-old Republic of India has an unsurpassed reputation in banking circles because of its unbroken record of never having missed a loan payment on more than two billion dollars of international loans during the ten years since the Republic was formed.

Trailer Laws Explained For Motorists By Highway Patrol

Motorists towing boat trailers, house trailers, and other type trailers used for moving household goods should review the laws affecting such practice, warns the California Highway Patrol.

The following points were offered by Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell for review by persons towing such trailers either by passenger car or commercial vehicle: A 45 mile-an-hour maximum speed limit prevails unless a lower speed is posted; mechanical or electrical turn signals are required if hand and arm signals are not clearly visible from rear; the towing vehicle must be equipped with a mirror reflecting a view of the highway 200 feet to the rear; one red tail lamp, a license plate lamp, one red reflector, and a stop lamp are required on each vehicle.

Also hitches must be properly and securely mounted, with a legal safety chain to control trailer if hitch fails; the trailer is required to follow substantially in path of the towing vehicle without whipping or swerving; registration card or temporary permit must accompany trailer, and be sure the license plate is mounted not less than 12 inches nor more than 60 inches from the ground when the trailer is unladen.

Tickets may be purchased for $1 at Thearle Music Co., three Seven Seas clothing centers and "The California Story" box office in the Spanish village, Balboa park.

Another headline orchestra which will take part in the Fiesta is Les Brown and his Band of Renown. Brown will play for the Ambassador's Ball in Hotel del Coronado on the evening of September 5, the most formal event of the Fiesta.

He also will play for a street dance in North Park September 4 and a street dance in downtown San Diego September 6. Brown appeared here in the 1956 Fiesta and proved popular with dancers.

Fiesta Cut-Rate Ticket Sale Ends

Advance sale of reserved seat tickets to "The California Story" at reduced prices will close Friday night, Wayne Dillard, executive director of the Fiesta del Pacifico and producer of the spectacle, announced yesterday.

During the advance sale period, tickets may be purchased for 50 cents less than the regular price. The regular prices are $1.50 for juniors, $2.50 for reserved seats, and $3.50 for box seats. The advanced sale discount prices are $1, $2 and $3.

"The California Story" will be presented for 10 performances in Westgate Park in Mission Valley as the entertainment feature of the Fiesta. It will open on Saturday and run through September 9 nightly at 8:30 except Sunday, September 7.

Tickets are on sale at "The California Story" box office in the Spanish Village, Balboa Park, and Thearle Music Co., 640 Broadway.

"The California Story" tells the dramatic and colorful history of the golden state with a cast of 1,300 actors, singers and dancers. Seven stages are used for the mammoth production.

Dillard said there will be parking accommodations for 4,000 automobiles at Westgate Park, including an additional 1,000 spaces the Fiesta management has obtained from nearby property owners.

Generator Slated For South Bay

The California Public Utilities Commission last week authorized the San Diego Gas and Electric Company to construct a $25,000, 600 steam-electric generating station at the southeastern end of San Diego Bay.

The station will be known as South Bay Power Plant No. 1. It is scheduled to be placed in operation by July 1, 1960, and will have a capacity of 142,000 kilowatts to meet future power demands in the San Diego area.

The company plans to seek authority later to construct two more units and possibly as many as eight if sufficient cooling water is available. The first unit will be constructed on a 146-acre site of undeveloped industrial property within San Diego and Chula Vista.

David D. Pascoe, director of instructional materials for the La Mesa-Spring Valley school district is attending the conference under a special grant from Teaching Films Custodians, Inc., according to Dr. M. Ted Dixon, associate superintendent.

The conference is sponsored by the State University of Iowa and the National Education Association and is held at the university's Lakeside laboratory at Lake Okoboji. Only 45 persons in the United States have been extended expense-paid invitations, according to Dean Bruce Mahan.

Pascoe has been with La Mesa-Spring Valley schools since 1953. Prior to that time he served on the staff of the University of Southern California, UCLA, and San Diego State College.

Directors Vote 'No' On Water Tax Hike

There will be no increase in the tax rate of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California for the coming year, district board of directors decided Tuesday. They voted to retain the 18 cents rate for the 1958-59 year.

The decision was made despite the fact the water district is engaged in a $200,000,000 aqueduct construction program to bring the Colorado River water line to full ultimate capacity. It was pointed out by General Manager and Chief Engineer Robert B. Diemer.

Of the 18 cent tax rate, 11 cents will be used to meet interest and principal payments on outstanding Colorado River Aqueduct bonds sold to finance construction of the water supply system from the Colorado River. Board Chairman Joseph Jensen stated. The remaining seven cents, he said, will be used to meet federal government expenses are being paid from the district's water revenue, Jensen pointed out.

Those White Road Circles Explained By Road Experts

White, painted circles approximately 3 feet in diameter, which have aroused the interest of local motorists, are engineers' marks on state county roads.

Its all part of an aerial survey program—designed to speed up road work and cut engineering costs.

State Division of Highways, survey field crews are presently active on State Route 94 between Palm Avenue in La Mesa and the Sweetwater bridge in the Casa de Oro area, announced Jacob Dekema, district engineer for the division.

The purpose of these activities is the establishment of control points of known location and elevation for a contemplated aerial survey of the area, Dekema pointed out.

New aerial survey techniques have made possible highway planning and design engineering for a fraction of the former costs. Widespread use of these methods throughout the state highway system is not only greatly expediting our work but saving the public millions of dollars tax-wise, Dekema said. Possibly more important, he said, is the fact that the employment of aerial survey techniques along with a new electronic computer system are going far toward solving our pronounced engineer shortage during these critical times.

Tear In Eye As Elderly Couple Missed $400 Prize

There were tears in the eyes of his wife as 79-year-old Foster Barnsley, retired and ailing learned he had missed collecting on the $400 L.G. merchant's jackpot by not being present when his name was called. The Barnsleys live at 7537 North Avenue. He will be awarded $5 as a consolation prize, instead.

The Barnsleys said they knew about the event but had never won anything in their lives "so we didn't think there was any use in going to the thing this week."

"We sure could have used that money," Mrs. Barnsley said.

The jackpot will grow approximately $100 a week and will be awarded, whole or in part, to those persons who shop in Lemon Grove. Everyone shopping here will be given a coupon without cost or obligation. Each Thursday at 3 p.m. should one person will be called during a ceremony in the plaza. Sharp he be present, a share of the jackpot will be handed him there and then. Should he be absent, a consolation prize of $5, such as the Barnsleys got, will be awarded.
